The Gods The Gods The Gods, June '22

From April '22 to March '23, we've hosted 110 public events - theatre, music, comedy, visual art and dance, with roots in Carribean, African, South Asian, East Asian and European culture

Aneesa and South London Muay Thai Fighters, September '22

From September to November, we collaborated on The Fighting Spirit of South London, with Streatham-based photographer, Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society, and member of the martial arts community, Aneesa Dawoojee

Search 'Streatham Space Project' on Spotify to listen to interviews with the fighters, recorded live in front of an audience in our stage space

Akeim Toussaint-Buck and Muti Musafiri dance, April '22

This year we supported south London creatives with over 12 weeks of free or subsidised rehearsal space

If you are an artist in south London launching a project, drop us a message on hello@streathamspaceproject.co.uk

Origami flies with Makiko Aoyama at our Family Day, December '22

We've welcomed over 900 children and their families to our free-to-access family days and workshops this year. We've also supported LGBTQ+ teenagers with creative workshops for Colours youth group, in partnership with Streatham Youth Community Trust, supported by Lambeth Council's Elevate scheme

Daniella Aguedo-Piper and Phoebe the puppet at Embracing Arts Xmas performance for Livity School, December '22

In '22-'23 we've hosted some amazing educational, charitable and creative careers partners - Embracing Arts, Livity SEN school, Dunraven Primary, The Old Vic Theatre-Makers program, Streatham Youth Community Trust, SC Youth, BigKid Foundation, Elm Court School, and Black Thrive

The Tracks on Tap family supporting their peers, May '22

We've continued to give a warm welcome to youth culture in south London, and loved the new events we've supported from first-time producers - The Lab, Wannabe Comedy and Plugged in n Vibe and the first ever Tracks on Tap Awards

We would like to say a huge thanks to everyone who's supported us this year - our wonderful funders, everyone who's donated, amazing artists, creative young people and most of all everyone who's come through for an event here, and trusted us with their precious free time

As ever, huge love and appreciation,
