

CALL-OUT:

South London Previews Festival

We're looking for theatre artists to join us for our festival of previews this July! Whether you are taking your show to Edinburgh, going on tour, or simply want a night to preview finished work, we want our audiences to see it first.

This is a great chance to test out your work on a live audience, perform in London, and bring your work to audiences who might not be able to catch your show otherwise.

What we are looking for:

- Exciting theatre that is ready for the stage
- All shows should be at least 60 minutes

If you have work that sort of fits our vibe but you're not sure, get in touch with us. We love hearing from new artists and, if this opportunity isn't quite right, we'll be sure to add you to our list of People Making Exciting Work for future collaborations.

Who we are interested in hearing from

We are most interested in hearing from artists who are underrepresented in the creative industries such as:

- Artists from working class backgrounds
- Artists of African or Caribbean, Latinx, South Asian, East Asian, Middle Eastern and North African heritages, and those from across our global communities
- Artists who may have arrived in the creative industries later on in life (e.g. as a second career)
- Disabled artists
- LGBTQIA+ artists
- Migrant artists
- Neurodiverse artists
